Celebrant Almighty and merciful God, it is only by your gift that your faithful people offer you true and laudable service: Grant that we may run without stumbling to obtain your heavenly promises; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The congregation is seated for the proclamation of God's word

A READING FROM THE PROPHET HABAKKUK 1:1-4; 2:1-4

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw.
O LORD, how long shall I cry for help,
and you will not listen?
Or cry to you "Violence!"
and you will not save?
Why do you make me see wrong-doing and look at trouble?
Destruction and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.
So the law becomes slack
and justice never prevails.
The wicked surround the righteous-- therefore judgment comes forth perverted.
I will stand at my watchpost,
and station myself on the rampart;
I will keep watch to see what he will say to me,
and what he will answer concerning my complaint.
Then the LORD answered me and said:
Write the vision;
make it plain on tablets,
so that a runner may read it.
For there is still a vision for the appointed time;
it speaks of the end, and does not lie.
If it seems to tarry, wait for it;
it will surely come, it will not delay.
Look at the proud!
Their spirit is not right in them,
but the righteous live by their faith.

PSALM 119:137-144

Justus es, Domine

137

You are righteous, O LORD, *
and upright are your judgments.

138

You have issued your decrees * with justice and in perfect faithfulness.

139

My indignation has consumed me, *
because my enemies forget your words.

140

Your word has been tested to the uttermost, *
and your servant holds it dear.

141

I am small and of little account, *
yet I do not forget your commandments.

142

Your justice is an everlasting justice * and your law is the truth.

143

Trouble and distress have come upon me, *
yet your commandments are my delight.

144

The righteousness of your decrees is everlasting; *
grant me understanding, that I may live.

A READING FROM THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO THESSALONIANS 1:1-4, 11-14

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE GOSPEL READING

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 19:1-10

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Leader On this day when we celebrate women, let us offer our prayers to Jesus, the son of ^{Mary}. We pray that, like the Disciples, our eyes will be opened and our hearts will sing. A brief silence

Leader Because on this earth we are all sons and daughters of Eve, let us pray for the whole world and the church universal, especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop, Mark our Bishop, Petero our Priest, and Suzan our Guest Preacher, that we might behold each other as brothers and sisters. Lord in your mercy,

People* Hear our Prayer.

Leader As Rebecca gave birth to Jacob, and in so doing she gave birth to a whole nation, let us pray for our own nation, and for all in authority. Especially Barack, our President; Chris our Governor; and Ras our Mayor. Lord in your mercy,

People* Hear our Prayer.

Leader As Rachel's son Joseph was mistreated, beaten, and wrongly jailed, we poor, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the victims of war and all who live in terror's wake. Lord in your mercy,

People* Hear our Prayer.

Leader As Hannah, the mother of Samuel, went to the House of the Lord to pray with earnest integrity, we earnestly pray for those in this community, and especially those celebrating their birthdays this week. Lord in your mercy,

People* Hear our Prayer.

Leader As Naomi took Ruth into her home, we pray for those who care for us as surrogate, spiritual mothers. We pray with gratitude for all those who give the gift of love and nurturing. Lord in your mercy,

People* Hear our Prayer.

Leader As Elizabeth gave birth in old age, and as she saw her son John the Baptist carried off to persecution, we pray for all those who are sick, those who are suffering, and those with any need, especially those we

People

Leader And, as the Blessed Virgin Mary stood by the cross and watched her son die, we pray for the dead and the dying. Lord, be with all those who mourn the loss of their mother. Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our Prayer.

Leader Lord Jesus, who wishes to gather your people as a mother hen gathers together her brood, we offer to you our prayers. Accept our gratitude for all women and pray that you will grant all women your comfort and strength.

People Help all of us, brothers and sisters, to be your family on earth, as we shall be in Heaven. Amen.

We invite you to participate in the following litany, according to the directions as they pertain to you.

Leader You formed us in your image, Lord. In you each of us is loved, adored, unique. You call us your own children. You made our homes and families to honor you, to make love our strong foundation, to make worship the center of our lives.

- Left Side* Bless, O God, all the families that are strong, and loving.
- Right Side* And bless also, Lord, those who have to live in families that are dangerous, where fear and mistrust rule.
- Women* Bless all with happy memories of growing up in a good home.
- Men* And bless all whose memories are filled with pain.
- Leader* Bless, O God, all who live in traditional families, where father and mother and children live together in peace and love and responsibility. And bless, O God, all those who live in non traditional families:
- Men* One-parent families, where death or divorce or military service have removed one parent.
- Women* Divided families, where children shuttle back and forth between estranged parents.
- Right Side* Blended families, where children must learn to live with strangers.
- Left Side* Families with gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgendered parents or children.
- All* Families who mourn, especially families who have experienced the death of a child.
- All* Adopting families.
- Leader* Families where husband and wife are unable to bear children of their own, and are hoping to adopt.
- All* Marriages where neither birth nor adoption are possible.
- Leader* There are so many ways to be family, O Lord, some that bring great joy, and some that bring sorrow.
- All* Be our strength and consolation in whatever family we find ourselves. Amen.

Leader Merciful God, we commend to you all for whom we pray, for the sake of your crucified and risen Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Celebrant Let us pray.
Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE CITY OF NEWARK

Celebrant Let us pray.
Almighty God, in your Word you have given us a vision of that Holy City to which the nations of the world bring their glory. Behold and visit we pray the City of Newark. Renew the ties of mutual regard, which form our civic life. Send us honest and able leaders. Enable us to eliminate poverty, prejudice and oppression; that peace may prevail with righteousness, and justice with order, and that men and women with differing talents may find with one another the fulfillment of their humanity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN HONOR
ANNA CILLA PAUL LAYTON

How best to describe our honoree? When asked by Jeri Knox, a family friend who endeavored to do a short bio several years ago for a then up and coming event for the Middlebury College Bicentennial in Vermont, she responded “Classically trained, emotionally charged, I sing because I know no other way to fulfill the yearning in my spirit.” Anna Cilla was born in 1931 to Anna & Joseph Paul at City Hospital in Newark, NJ. Both of her parents emigrated from the island of St. Kitts. They came to America in search of a better life for their family. As a young girl at age ten, Anna began singing in the Youth choir at St. Philip’s Church which used to rest on New and High streets in Newark, NJ. This is where it all began. With the guidance of organist, Dr. Arthur Stephens, Anna blossomed as a young singer. Despite the fact that she was coming up in a tumultuous time in our country back in 1942 when there was much racial division and tension, World War II loomed large in American life, many young men were being drafted, as was her brother, Nathaniel. During this time her dear father, Joseph, passed away. Anna continued to sing, she continued to flourish. Her mother and her sister Thirielda always encouraged her to “let them hear your voice.” And she did!

Her talent was recognized and encouraged while she attended East Orange High School, by her teacher, Ms. Kathleen Chrisman. At the age of fifteen, Anna studied voice at the Metropolitan Opera House studios in Manhattan under the direction of Ms. Kathleen Chrisman. Ms. Chrisman would continue private lessons for Anna well beyond graduation and into her adult life. After graduating from East Orange High School in 1949, her mother surprised her with a trip to ST. Kitts, WI the island home from which her parents came. It was then that her star began to rise. Anna performed in a series of concerts and recitals sponsored by The Methodist Church and St John’s Church of Tabernacle in Basse Terre, St. Kitts. This was an extraordinary time for Anna and her mother. She headlined several operas and cantatas to help the local churches raise money for various fund-raising events. Dr. Arthur Stephens, the organist at St Philip’s Church back home also graciously mailed her additional sheet music to Basse Terre to help her keep up with the demands of the concerts she was performing. Anna was having the time of her life being treated like royalty. And thus, a Diva was born.

After returning to the states, betwixt working in Bamberger's department store and General Instrument & Co., she continued singing with the Youth Choir of St Philip's Church. It was there that she met her beau and husband, Warren Layton (deceased). They fell in love and were married in 1953.

They were blessed with a beautiful family of three daughters, Joanne Brown (Kelvin), Cheryl Cooper (Sidney), and Laura Layton and five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. After the merger of St. Philip's Church congregation with Trinity & St. Philip's Cathedral, a Gospel Choir was formed which spanned over decades. Anna and Warren sang together until his passing in 2006.

We honor Anna today for the gift of 75 years of Service music. Her tenacity and pursuit of excellence in all things be it her family life or music life stands out. This has been an exquisite lyric Soprano voice to the following groups, The Orange Majestic Singers, under the direction of Albert Tillery, The Polyphonic Chorale, under the direction of Elaine Jones, The Newark Community Concert Choir, under the direction of Dr. Conrad Brown, The Harlem Spiritual Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Francois Clemmons, The Essex Chorale, under the direction of Dr. DeCosta Dawson and The Oratorio Society of New Jersey, under the direction of Dr. Sandor Scado.

On any given Sunday, you can hear her singing from the loft of this great Cathedral, as she has done since she was just a girl. Anna's dedication to service continues to inspire greatness in us all. Thank you Anna for sharing your beautiful voice, one of your many gifts God has bestowed upon you to share with us at the Cathedral for the past 75 years.

Anna also serves as a life-long member of The Sons & Daughters of St. Christopher Benevolent & Charitable Society of NJ Inc.

SOMETHING ABOUT BELIEVING

DUKE ELLINGTON

"Something About Believing"

(song)

Something 'bout believing that keeps me unfolding.
Something 'bout believing that makes my soul sing.
Something 'bout believing that keeps me holding
On to GOD Almighty.

Something 'bout believing that helps my mending,
Something 'bout believing that there's no ending,
Believing all the way because I'm depending
On The GOD Almighty.

I don't light a lamp to see the Sun,
Don't need proof of GOD,
Because I know that there ain't a-gonna be but One.
Something 'bout believing in the creation,
Something 'bout believing the information.
Something 'bout believing there's just one nation,
Under GOD Almighty.

I want to be hip, I want to be cool,
I got to be with it all the way,
Because I ain't about to be no fool.
Something 'bout believing that's greater than pleasure,
Something 'bout believing that's more than treasure,
Something 'bout believing that's beyond measure,
Just one GOD Almighty.

(recitative)

I know that you know,
The Bible says it's so.
There is much mystery in the history,
To be exact, accept the fact,
An example or two is here for me and you.

(song)

Animals, birds and fish,
Have senses much keener and stronger.
And scientists do the difficult today,
And even the impossible just takes a little longer.

(recitative)

If you believe this,
What's to keep me from believing that?

(song)

Something 'bout believeing that keeps me going,
Something 'bout believing my faith is growing,
Something 'bout believing that keeps me knowing,
I'll see GOD Almighty.

(recitative)

Silliest thing ever read,
Was that somebody said,
"GOD is dead."
The mere mention of the first word,
Automatically eliminates
The second and the third.
